Haiku

As the weather changed,
Trees lost leaves,
Looked barren and
Stood silent.

— Ahmed Nur

ON READING ROBERT HERRICK'S DELIGHT IN DISORDER

Order: Who can much afford her?
In clothes she covers every flaw,
In church she pharisees the law.
Blessed are the poor, He said.

The spice of life is not precise.
In court there is no laughter;
(Is it perfection that you're after?)
Woe be to the pharisee.

So while some stand as though on trial,
I think that I shall tell a joke
(A pinch of pain in a funny cloak);
Blessed are the Pollacks, He said.

— Steven Ray Johns

If you ever had a doll
that you dropped in the lake
during the family vacation —
she is sitting on the patio of the kelp-king eating turtle eggs and wishing for you.

If you used to have a coat
that you buttoned yourself the year you were seven —
it is hanging in the closet
of the governor of Barcelona
with cinnamon in its pockets.

If you ever had a dream
that walked out the door,
buttering its angel wings —
it is waiting for a taxi in Times Square
and brushing the dust off its shirt sleeve.

It is possible to lose one's hair
but it will grow into the mouth of a centaur.

It is possible to lose one's teeth
but they will grow into the mouth of a centaur.

It is possible to lose one's head
but it is vacationing in the Carribean
and buying souvenirs.
When it returns the mind will own reed placemats.

If you leave a sock at the laundromat
a child will use it for Christmas.
If you drop your sandwich in the grass
an ant sings.

— Cynthia Habegger

Sprite

SERMON TO A TV ADDICT

day and night before the screen
you sit my child,
Jack is in his pulpit,
and babe has lost his britches,
but still you sit, and watch life pass you by ever so quickly summer is here and is gone,
and did you know the wild raspberries
were dying for you to pick them and they did?
in the field autumn has come
and you sit and I sigh
for the thick smell of leaves and earth
and dew you miss, or maybe I just miss for you,
the first snowflake drifts lazily down
but your tongue is not there to catch it.
and I never do see angels in my yard only
you before the screen, letting life be lived for you, I cry, jacks wither quickly
and so do all babes.

Shadows of sadness

Shadows of grief

A Bind of Desirings

For my birthday I asked for:
a fluff of pillows,
a garden of grass,
a carrot of oranges,
a fish of fools,
a geyser of sheep,
a mirror of imagination,
a wedge of apples,
a swing of Aprils,
a wagon of tails,
a needle of wheat,
But all I received was a
dragon of emptiness.
Cindy Yoder

Ice Cream.

Ice Cream.
I want some
Ice Cream.

My life has been
one eternal longing
for Ice Cream.

And Please
Leave off the toppings,
the nuts,
the marshmellow-creme.

All I'm asking for is some
just plain,
ordinary,
everyday
Ice Cream.

Any Flavor will do.
Please gimme some Ice Cream.
Please let me have some
Ice Cream
Ice Cream

I Scream!

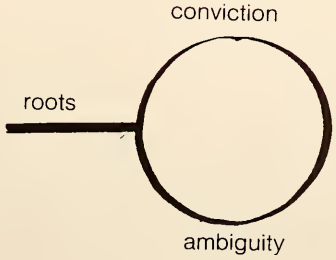
To seek and to find



The surface of the earth is soft and impressible by the feet of men; and so with the paths which the mind travels. How worn and dusty then, must be the highways of the world, how deep the ruts of tradition and conformity.

A name to look up to Generations have looked to Miles' Alka-Seltzer® for fast relief of upset stomach with headache. And millions have grown up on our famous multiple vitamin supplements. But to countless others Miles means more... much more.

They look to Miles for electronic medical instruments, diagnostic products, organic chemicals and enzymes. And for pharmaceuticals, citric acid, textured vegetable protein foods and many other products that help people live longer, better lives.

For dozens of "people products" we've become known as the company to look up. And a name to look up to.

Even if you earn only $24.76 a week, you need a First National Banker.

If you earn money — any amount of money — it's time you had a bank. Because learning how to handle your income can be just as important as the amount of money you make. We'd like to help you get a start on good money management with your first savings or checking account.

Over the years, First National has introduced hundreds of students to banking. We consider it an investment in your future — and ours. You'll soon be needing a lot of other bank services, and we want to be the bank you remember. We figure we can't start too soon. And neither can you.

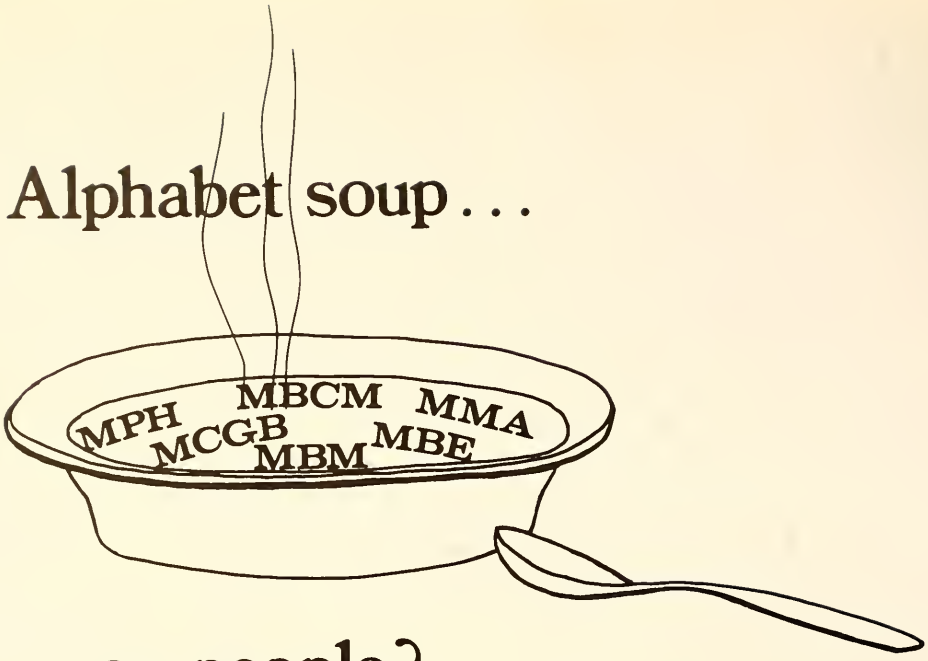
Alphabet soup . . .



. . . or people?

At first glance, the six service agencies of the Mennonite Church look a lot like alphabet soup. Boards for this, agencies for that. But take another look. Behind those names and initials are people—working with you to build up Christ's body, the church. How can we further assist you?
